

Camp Ramah's Diversity and Inclusion Commitment

1) VALUE: JEWISH RELIGIOUS DIVERSITY: While Ramah is proudly a Conservative Jewish Camp, our population reflects sizable cohorts of diverse groups of Jews affiliating as Reform, Reconstructionist, Orthodox, Chabad and other.

a. RAMAH IN ACTION: While public observance of ritual and practice will follow Conservative approaches, staff and campers alike will honor and respect diverse religious backgrounds and individual beliefs.

2) VALUE: SEXUAL ORIENTATION AND GENDER DIVERSITY: The Ramah community includes campers and staff of all sexual orientations and gender identities. With the recognition that gender identity and sexual orientation are distinct, Ramah seeks to simultaneously create a safe and welcoming environment for LGBTQ identified kids, staff and parents.

a. RAMAH IN ACTION: We achieve this through our sensitivity to avoid heteronormative assumptions in our language and programming and to educate our staff about the needs of gender non-conforming campers. In helping each and every Ramahnik to find their place in our kehillah, we assign bunking that supports a child's overall well-being, which may include bunking according to gender identity. We recognize that this area may represent a "learning zone" for some of our families and we would be happy to provide additional resources.

3) VALUE: FAMILY DIVERSITY: Ramah welcomes and reflects families of all constellations which include: single parents, same-sex parents, divorced households, blended families, non-parent guardians, and everything in between.

a. RAMAH IN ACTION: Ramah as an organization continues to improve its staff training, forms and procedures to enable all Ramah families to feel at home.

4) VALUE: FINANCIAL DIVERSITY: Roughly ½ of Ramah families require financial support to send their kids to camp including 35-40% who receive Ramah financial aid.

a. RAMAH IN ACTION: Ramah will continue to aggressively look for all means of making camp more affordable and accessible. We maintain need-blind admissions and will continue to embrace camp families and campers irrespective of financial capacity. At camp, our community will continue to elevate relationships over materialism as we strive to keep camp accessible and affordable.

5) VALUE: CULTURAL AND ETHNIC DIVERSITY: Ramah campers and staff include Jews of various ethnic and cultural backgrounds including Sephardic, Mizrahi, Ashkenazi, Israeli, Persian, Russian, Jews by choice, Jews of color, and more.

a. RAMAH IN ACTION: Ramah seeks to be a home for Jews from all these diverse backgrounds, both as campers and as role models on staff. At Ramah campers will learn about the diversity of the Jewish world through experiential education and create a culture of acceptance and celebration of traditions shared by Jews from around the world.

6) VALUE: LOVE FOR ISRAEL AND A DIVERSITY OF PERSPECTIVES: From its inception, Camp Ramah has maintained Israel and Ivrit as central pillars of Jewish identity and education. With hundreds of shlichim (Israeli staff) spending summers at Ramah and Ramahniks spending weeks, months, or decades living in Israel, the Ramah experience has also influenced Israeli society.

a. RAMAH IN ACTION: Ramah believes in infusing Ivrit and Israel experiential education into the camper and staff experience that reflects love for Israel. In an ever-increasing era of political polarization, we aim at Ramah to have civil discourse about Israel, led with age-appropriate education and values. Although not a formal part of our curriculum, our commitment to civil discourse extends to include the topics of U.S. and global politics.

7) VALUE: NEUROTYPICAL DIVERSITY: Camp Ramah has long been a welcoming place to campers and staff with disabilities. This has been a shining example of how communal diversity is a blessing and enriching for all.

a. RAMAH IN ACTION: Ramah maintains a commitment to further destigmatize differing abilities within and outside of the Tikvah community. We continue to find new ways to accommodate and support a broad range of needs of campers and staff throughout the camp experience and Ramah journey.
